

Consulting, Investigations and International (CI&I):

Services

■ Litigation Support

We assist business leaders, counsel, security managers and professionals in responding to risk by providing business intelligence in support of litigation and asset recovery efforts.

Andrews International (AI) is an enterprise risk management firm with global reach and years of experience in litigation support and corporate investigations. Our Consulting, Investigations and International (CI&I) division provides a wide range of litigation support services throughout the world.

- Fraud inquiries
- Asset tracing and recovery
- Background investigations/business intelligence
- Research and link analysis
- Digital forensics/e-discovery
- Witness interviews
- Expert testimony
- Vendor/supplier and partner due diligence
- Product brand protection, including gray market, counterfeiting, product diversion, and theft of intellectual property

These support services enable our customers to understand their threat landscapes, proactively mitigate risk, and respond to threats constructively to minimize loss.

Specializing in fraud inquiries, analysis, and tracing and recovery, the Consulting, Investigations and International division has assisted counsel and clients with some of their most challenging projects. Our consultants conduct research, analysis, and investigations to uncover fraud, abuse, and misconduct from the individual to the corporate level, building cases for litigation and judgment recovery.

Whether supporting Fortune 500 corporations or outside counsel, our services are conducted with the utmost discretion and confidentiality, with respect and sensitivity to the culture of the enterprise and the individuals involved.

In addition to assisting with judgment recovery, we help our customers mitigate risk and prevent millions of dollars in losses through risk mitigation program analysis and protection/threat management.
