Specialized Services

■ Consulting & Investigations

Through our Specialized Services team, Andrews International provides a range of security and risk management solutions as diverse as the needs of the clients we serve.

Our clients' business operations and risk profiles are continuously evolving in today's shifting security landscape. Likewise, we are continuously expanding our capabilities and service portfolio to stay ahead of the curve as a total solutions provider.

World events have spotlighted the weaknesses inherent in a silo approach to security and risk management. With a broad service offering above and beyond traditional uniformed security, we are prepared to support clients in implementing the multidisciplinary approach essential to effectively respond to today's most pressing threats.

Operating under the umbrella of our Consulting, Investigations and International division, our Specialized Services programs are managed and deployed by seasoned professionals with decades of experience in public safety and private security, and expertise spanning a multitude of business sectors and risk concerns.

Our Specialized Services team offers the following resources and capabilities for clients in the United States and around the world.

- Anti-piracy unit
- Canine contraband inspections
- Disaster Emergency Response Team (DERT) with specialized expertise of off-duty/retired law enforcement
- Executive protection with specialized expertise in high-profile celebrity/VIP protection
- Retail loss prevention
- Special event security with specialized expertise in large media and entertainment events
- Specialized training for security, law enforcement and military personnel

A partnership with Andrews International links clients into a network of security professionals for every security and risk management need. Our Specialized Services team, together with experts throughout the Consulting, Investigations and International division, provide clients with a single-source, one-stop solution to meet unique enterprise objectives and help mitigate security and asset protection vulnerabilities.
