

FINANCIAL INSTITUTION

Solutions for a Safer World™

With more than two decades of experience providing security services to major financial institutions across the country, Andrews International provides services from risk analysis to uniformed security.

Financial institutions face more significant challenges than ever in these uncertain times of recession and market vulnerability. Cash, securities, and other monetary instruments are a primary target for theft, embezzlement, and other related crimes. Additionally, socio-economic challenges and maintaining public trust in financial institutions requires an extremely professional level of security planning and protection.

Andrews International brings to its clients an integrated approach to security that provides a range of services and a proven level of reliability to meet both the conventional and extended security needs of the industry. With more than two decades of experience providing security services to major financial institutions across the country, the firm provides services from risk analysis and robbery suppression planning to uniformed security.

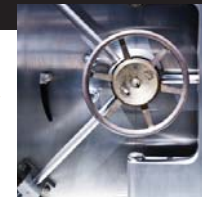

Professionals from Andrews International focus on threat assessments, situation analysis, and meticulous planning to identify problems and issues before they arise. Facilities protection requires the highest level of security services related to access control, ingress and egress monitoring, after-hours protection, patrols, and alarm monitoring.

Among the key services provided by the firm are:

- Threat assessments
- Facilities protection
- Crisis management center
- Consulting and investigations
- Emergency/unusual event response
- Robbery prevention and avoidance
- Preventive patrols
- Alarm monitoring and response
- Security audits of ATMs and other off-site facilities
- Armed and unarmed security officers
- High-risk currency transportation

Andrews International professionals have created, and constantly refine, an approach that evolves to meet the needs of its financial institution clients. Company management works closely with clients to create customized security programs that focus on advance planning and preparation for all contingencies.

The company's stringent selection process, customized training, responsive management and quality control processes contribute to Andrews International's 98% customer retention rate.
