

SHOPPING CENTER

Solutions for a Safer World™

Andrews International brings to its diverse range of retail center clients an integrated approach to security that meets both conventional and extended security needs, including a customer-specific hospitality program.

Shopping centers have become major marketing and merchandising centers drawing millions of people to them daily. The combination of today's costly property developments, expensive merchandise, and large crowds of shoppers, has exposed centers to a broad range of potential security vulnerabilities.

Shopping centers of all types have become major targets of theft, vandalism, property damage, product tampering, shoplifting, altercations, and litigation. An extremely professional level of security planning, prevention, and protection is required to meet the broad range of issues facing the owners and management of these centers.

Facilities protection requires the highest level of security services related to access control, ingress and egress monitoring, after-hours protection, patrols, and alarm monitoring.

Andrews International brings to its diverse retail center clients an integrated approach to security. The company provides a range of services and a proven level of reliability to meet both the conventional and extended security needs of the field, including a customer-specific hospitality program.

Professionals from Andrews International provide its clients with comprehensive guidelines for security, focusing on threat assessments, situation analysis, and proactive planning to identify problems and issues before they arise.

Among the key services provided by the firm are:

- Facilities, materials, and merchandise protection
- Customer-specific hospitality training
- Security operations management
- Crisis management
- Parking lot and vehicle security
- Emergency event response
- Access control and electronic security design
- Alarm monitoring and integrated security system management

With significant experience managing the security programs for national client portfolios, Andrews International professionals have created, and constantly refine, an approach that evolves to meet the needs of its shopping center clients. Company management works closely with clients to create customized security programs that focus on advance planning and preparation for all contingencies.
